

Another Successful Election!

Election Day was this past Tuesday in several parts of Palm Beach County. Over 60,850 voters cast their ballot on or before March 8, 2022, in the Special General Election in Florida House District 88 and 19 municipalities, either by mail, at one of our four Early Voting locations, or at their assigned polling place on Election Day. On behalf of your Elections Office, I want to say THANK YOU to the voters, poll workers, municipal clerks, and candidates for your help in making these elections run smoothly and successfully. You may find the election results online at VotePalmBeach.gov.

Upcoming Runoff Elections

The Palm Beach County Canvassing Board will certify the official election results in the Special Election for House District 88 after tabulating military and overseas ballots received by the March 18th deadline. A Runoff Election has been ordered for Tuesday, March 22, 2022, in the 2022 Uniform Municipal Elections for Boynton Beach, Jupiter, Jupiter Inlet Colony, Lantana, Lake Worth Beach, and Riviera Beach.
